My Home Move charity auction is a rocketing success
£2,515 raised for The Cariat Foundation

A charity auction held recently by My Home Move at the Leicester space centre raised over £2,500 for the children's charity 'The Cariat Foundation'. The black tie dinner was attended by My Home Move associates, staff and friends, and a number of fund raising events took place throughout the evening.

Guests were greeted at the space centre venue by Daleks, who set the fun tone for the evening; attendees were then treated to a viewing of 'Astronaut' in the 360 degree high definition space theatre.

Charles Smailes, President of the National Association of Estate Agents and auctioneer, presented an auction of generously donated items. Up for grabs were two formula one corporate hospitality tickets, a spa day for two and two Westlife concert tickets. Also on the fund raising agenda for the evening was a hotly contested space themed game of 'Tops and Tails' testing attendees on their general knowledge. A few lucky attendees also won luxurious food hampers in a generous raffle.

The money raised will go towards helping young people and children from underprivileged backgrounds, giving them extra support and encouragement so that they are able to realise the potential they were born with.

Simon Stone, founder of the Cariat Foundation and Legal Director at My Home Move, comments; "The money raised will make a huge difference to the foundation, and in turn to the many young lives Cariat is endeavouring to improve. I would like to thank all of those who generously donated at the event."

Stephen Hayter, sales and marketing director at My Home Move comments; “The evening was a great success and a good time was had by all. It was a good opportunity for us to get to know our associates and recommenders better and I am delighted by the amount of money we managed to raise for the Cariatad Foundation.”
