My Home Move highly commended in Moneyfacts Group Awards

My Home Move, the largest independent providers of conveyancing services in England and Wales, was recently highly commended in the “Best Conveyancer 2008” category at the 2008 Moneyfacts awards.

The highly coveted Moneyfacts awards are presented annually. Each award is assessed by experienced research teams on the basis of data collected and analysed over the year and voted for by IFA readers.

The winners of the 2008 Moneyfacts Awards were announced on 13th June at the prestigious Brewery in London. Guests were welcomed by Stephen Sklaroff, Director of the Finance & Leasing Association, our sponsors. Following a delicious lunch, guests were entertained by comedian, television presenter and author Dominic Holland, who then hosted the awards ceremony itself.

Lee Tillcock, editor of Moneyfacts, said, "Moneyfacts awards recognise the most consistent products on offer over the previous year and are seen as a real benchmark for excellence."

Stephen Hayter, Director, My Home Move, said, “We are really pleased that although we didn’t win the award, we were highly commended runners up. This just goes to show that we are recognised as one of the top in our game!

“This is especially important as we were up against traditional conveyancers in our category and what we’ve been able to demonstrate is that we are not only efficient, we are much faster than traditional conveyancing – we work around the clock - and it is a greener option too.”
