Leicester conveyancing provider comes up trumps...

Leicester based conveyancing provider, myhomemove has bucked the market downturn, growing their market share by 20% in Q1- 2009, implementing a major recruitment drive and is looking for a new home!

myhomemove, the largest provider of direct conveyancing in England & Wales has implemented a major recruitment drive this year. So far, over 35 permanent jobs have been offered at the Grove Park Law firm and in addition 40 plus contract workers have been employed to stay ahead of the increasing demand.

Mark Montgomery, Commercial Director, myhomemove commented: "The last 18 months has been hard for us and the Estate Agents we work with. The housing market was probably the first area to really suffer, first we were hit by the credit crunch and then the global recession – it's been a tough period seeing some of the agents we've worked with for along time reduce staff or restructure their business.

myhomemove took a strategic decision to protect capacity through the winter whilst trying to maintain and grow market share, so when the market did start to recover we were in a good position to grow with it.

This strategy has proved to be very fruitful, and down to our perseverance and hard work we have already won some major new accounts this year. It's great to be growing again and our continued recruitment will ensure that our service levels are maintained."

Ruth Kinniburgh, HR Manager adds: "myhomemove is still growing rapidly and what we're looking for at the moment is individuals who already have previous experience in a conveyancing role who are looking to work in a large, progressive organisation. This is a rare opportunity; especially with the market still suffering like it is, so if anyone is interested in working for myhomemove, please contact me at recruitment@myhomemove.com."

Not just happy with a major recruitment drive, only 12 months after moving in to their existing premises myhomemove are looking for a new home for some of their legal teams. Mark Montgomery said: "We moved into huge, custom built premises just over a year ago which we initially though would last us for the next few years. Just one year down the line, and we are already struggling with space. We, just like others could not have anticipated the changes over the last 18 months and are in a very positive position at the moment to be recruiting, and moving into additional premises. We are pleased to announce that we've just signed a lease an additional adjacent building and will be moving some staff in during July."
